

Diners for Niners taste test finds flavor with 49ers

Six Santa Clara restaurants competed as 49ers players and guests sampled the dishes at the Diners for Niners taste-test event June 10 at the 49ers Santa Clara training facility.

1. Restaurant owner and president of Diners for Niners, Steve Dutra, displays his menu item "Niners Nachos."

2. Frank Chang, the owner of China Stix, prepares "Chi-Lo Mein" named after 49ers offensive lineman Chilo Rachal.

Information and photos provided by Steve Fine, San Francisco 49ers.

Club Auto Sport throws Le Mans pre-grid party

More than 900 people danced and ate their way through an evening celebrating Club Auto Sport's alliance with Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca for a two-day, free to the public weekend of racing on September 12-13.

5. Club Auto Sport co-founders John Davis, left, & Ralph Borelli, right, with television cooking star Guy Fieri of "Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives."

Information and photo provided by Orloff/Williams. Photo by Dan Gentile.